Gift Ideas for Those Who Serve

"I am the Police, and I am here to arrest you. You have broken the law. I did not write the law, I may even disagree with the law, but I will enforce it. Nothing will get me from chasing you in a street cage with bars. Behind my badge is a heart like yours. I bleed, I think, I love, and yes, I can be killed. And although I am but one man, I have thousands of brothers and sisters who would die for me and for them. We stand watch together of our city with a badge and a gun. The Thin-Blue-Line, protecting the prey from the predators, the good from the bad. We are the Police." -End of Watch

Custom Frames Mort Künstler's Final Civil War Painting - February 2015

MORT KÜNSTLER

AMERICA'S ARTIST

He's renowned as "the premier historical artist in America." When Mort Künstler began his emphasis on Civil War art in the late 1980s, he had already accomplished more than a half-dozen artists could hope to accomplish in a collective lifetime. From portraits of prehistoric American life to the odyssey of the space shuttle, Mort Künstler has painted America's story.

When he placed his focus on Civil War art, Mr. Künstler quickly established himself as the country's most-collected Civil War artist, and earned unprecedented acclaim within the genre of Civil War art. "Mort Künstler is the foremost Civil War artist of our time -- if not of all time," says Dr. James I.

Robertson Jr., the dean of Civil War historians and the author of the celebrated biography, Stonewall Jackson. "To study his paintings," says Robertson, "is to simply see history alive." Pulitzer Prize-winning historian James McPherson concurs. "Of all the artists working in the Civil War field," he observes, "none captures the human element, the aura of leadership, the sense of being there and sharing in the drama, quite like Mort Künstler. He has that enviable talent of being able to re-create history on canvas and to translate events into art."

THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR - THE CIVIL WAR PAINTING AMERICA'S HISTORY

The National Game - The White House

At the conclusion of the 150th anniversary of the Civil War, I announced that I had retired from painting the Civil War - and I meant it. Then I learned about the event depicted in my newest painting:

The National Game. It depicts an early baseball game played by Civil War soldiers on the South Lawn of the White House. Here was a captivating, historic scene from the Civil War and an important early event in baseball. I had to paint it!

Testimonials

Karen was so wonderful. She was patient and helpful. I think I was there for close to an hour looking at different frames and mats. She assisted me every step of the way. We bounced ideas off of one another and when I had it narrowed down to a few options she was nice enough to provide me with separate quotes for each of them. In the end, we were able to select a frame that I was pleased with and that stayed within my budget. Karen was an absolute pleasure to work with. Thanks again Karen! - Mike

A tattered, seemingly worthless piece of paper that meant the world to me as a representation of my diligent work effort and sacrifice spanning 7 years was treated with the utmost respect and thoughtfulness at the Long Island Picture Frame and Art Gallery. The end product of that compassion on their behalf took my breath away. I am very grateful for the effort and time that was put into the project by Karen and her staff at this facility. I recommend them highly. Their craftsmanship is unparalleled. The picture frame and glass are stunning. I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Shadi J. Ireifej DVM DACVS

This was the second time I used LIPF to have wrestling singlets framed for my schools newest State Champs. Each time the displays have come out amazing! And were better than anything I could have imagined! The people at LIPF were so helpful and were great about a quick turnaround time. I trusted their experience to capture the vision I had in mind to make these keepsakes for my athletes and their families. Thank you for all your help! - Mike

I have an extensive autograph collection and the crew at LIPF has made my collection come to life with their frame and matting selections. Everyone there is outstanding. The customer service is amazing! Jim has sat with me for many hours making sure that everything I have ever brought into that store looked perfect. - Annmarie G.

I had a great experience! I had come in late and needed something framed within a very short time - and it was done and done well ! Thanks, Carole

Jim, THANK YOU SO MUCH!!! The Billy Joel framed picture is incredible!! Everyone wants me to hold onto it for our black-tie gala. LOL But I know there will be lots of people in Oyster Bay wanting to win this beautiful piece!! Thank you so much for your generosity and support. It means SO much! Mary Brosky

Just wanted to say what a pleasure it was working with Karen! She went above and beyond to ensure that my picture showed up when I needed it. Karen helped me design a fantastic frame and even wrapped it for me with a great bow. I highly recommend Long Island Picture Frame & Art Gallery. I will definitely be using them again shortly. Thank you again Karen! You're the best! - Robert Pacella

Karen and Jim, my wife brought home the 16 framed pieces you did today, and we were both blown away by the job you did. The colors, matte choices, finish...everything was incredible. I hung about 6 pieces tonight but ran out of time. The walls in our house that have been bare for almost 18 years finally have some color and contrast on them. - Thanks again for everything, Dave

FAREWELL SPEECH TO BASEBALL

YANKEE STADIUM BRONX NEW YORK - JULY 4, 1939

Fans, for the past two weeks you have been reading about the bad break I got. Yet today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of this earth. I have been in ballparks for seventeen years and have never received anything but kindness and encouragement from you fans.

Look at these grand men. Which of you wouldn't consider it the highlight of his career just to associate with them for even one day? Sure, I'm lucky. Who wouldn't consider it an honor to have known Jacob Ruppert? Also, the builder of baseball's greatest empire, Ed Barrow? To have spent six years with that wonderful little fellow, Miller Huggins? Then to have spent the next nine years with that outstanding leader, that smart student of psychology, the best manager in baseball today, Joe McCarthy? Sure, I'm lucky.

When the New York Giants, a team you would give your right arm to beat, and vice versa, sends you a gift - that's something. When everybody down to the groundkeepers and those boys in white coats remember you with trophies - that's something. When you have a wonderful mother-in-law who takes sides with you in squabbles with her own daughter - that's something. When you have a father and a mother who work all their lives so you can have an education and build your body - it's a blessing. When you have a wife who has been a tower of strength and shown more courage than you dreamed existed - that's the heart of a hero. So I close in saying that I might have been given a bad break, but I've got an awful lot to live for." Lou Gehrig

VINCE LOMBARDI

WHAT IT TAKES TO BE #1

"Winning is not a sometime thing; it's an all the time thing. You don't win once in a while; you don't do things right once in a while; you do them right all of the time. Winning is a habit. Unfortunately, so is losing."

There is no room for second place. There is only one place in my game, and that's first place. I have finished second twice in my time at Green Bay, and I don't ever want to finish second again. There is a second place boy's game, but it's a game for losers played by losers. It is and always has been an American past to be first in anything we do, and to win, and to win, and to win.

Every time a football player goes to play his trade he's got to play from the ground up - from the soles of his feet right up to his head. Every inch of him has to play. Some guys play with their heads. That's O.K. You've got to be smart to be number one in any business. But more importantly, you've got to play with your heart, with every fiber of your body. If you're lucky enough to find a guy with a lot of head and a lot of heart, let's never going to come off the field second.

Running a football team is no different than running any other kind of organization - an army, a political party or a business. The principles are the same. The object is to win - to beat the other guy. Maybe that sounds hard or cruel. I don't think it is.

It is a reality of life that men are competitive and the most competitive games draw the most competitive men. That's why they are there - to compete. The object is to win fairly, squarely, by the rules - but to win.

And in truth, I've never known a man worth his salt who in the long run, deep down in his heart, didn't appreciate the grind, the discipline. There is something in good men that really yearns for discipline and the harsh reality of head to head combat.

I don't say these things because I believe in the 'brute' nature of men or that men must be brutalized to be competitive. I believe in God, and I believe in human decency. But I firmly believe that any man's finest hour - his greatest fulfillment to all he holds dear - is that moment when he has worked his heart out in a good cause and lies exhausted on the field of battle - victorious." - Vince Lombardi

Salvador Dalí

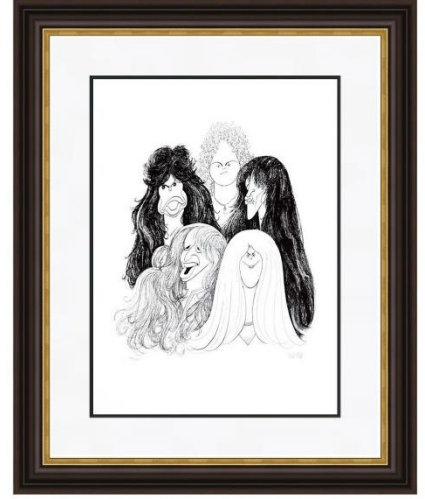

THE LAWYER

Salvador Dalí's Surrealist depiction of the Lawyer is one of the most powerful pieces from the professional suite. Painted in the foreground Dalí encompasses the piece with the owl which represents wisdom, notice subtly painted on the owl's forehead is the Scale of Justice. The two large black sections on the right and left side of the piece are the clouds of indecision which are painted above the jury. Dalí uses the dramatic color red to represent the people and the power they have. Dalí places the Lawyer centered on the page addressing the jury.

The History of

Long Island Picture Frame & Art Gallery

Jim Perna began his framing career at the impressionable age of 13. He sold picture frames for a family friend at the legendary Roosevelt Raceway Flea Market in Garden City, New York. Jim's new-found mentor took him under his wing and Jim quickly learned the basic principles of custom framing. Jim's passion for creativity, coupled with a "no holds barred" attitude, fueled his fearless mindset.

In 1987, at 19 years old, Jim launched Long Island Picture Frame in his parent's basement in Bellmore, New York. Shortly thereafter, Jim secured his first major account with the Garden City Hotel. That project enabled Jim to raise enough capital to open a brick and mortar in Massapequa Park, New York, in 1992.

In 2012, Long Island Picture Frame expanded to a second location in the Hamlet of Oyster Bay, New York.

27 years later, Jim owes the success of both locations to the entire team at Long Island Picture Frame...a "family" unit that unwaveringly strives for excellence in creativity, expert quality craftsmanship and superior customer service, as well as...
